Additional Hansons

Thomas Hansen, d. 12 Nov 1917 Indpls.
(Said by Gladys to be brother of Catherine/Kate)
His Will names sister Katherine Hansen of Indianapolis, other brothers,nephews and nieces. Nieces were Maria, Thora, Jony and Martha...but no children of his own.

One of these nieces (Gladys believed her name was "Thermina") married Charles Vollrath. Their children were Victor, Lawrence, Erma and Hansen. Victor Vollrath MD was Gladys' physician for some years and father of Dona Volrath, classmate of Charley Shirley's.

The Vorwalds

From Gladys: Anna Vorwald had a niece named Emma Bowlen (a first cousin of Arthur F.) This Emma supposedly had a brother Eddie Bowlen (tall) who lived in Columbus and a sister Lillian Gottschalk

Columbus, Wayne Twp. Bartholomew Co. IN

John H. Vorwald - d. 22 Apr 1884, age 78, born Germany
(WPA death records and 1900 cns. where son claims both parents b. Germany)
Probably father of Anna Vorwald and John H. Vorwald Jr.

John H. Vorwald (Jr.) - probably brother of Anna - 1900 cns.
b. Jan 1844, IN
m. 1866 Sophia L. Zuroveste — (she b. Feb 1845 IN, her parents both b. Germany)
Chn:
1. Emma, b. 1866, IN -
m. Lewis Bowlen 3 Nov 1889, Bartholomew Co.IN - WPA Mar.Recs.

2. Martha M., b.Dec 1869, m. Gustabus J.A VonFang, 14 Oct 1900
3. Lena M., b. Oct. 1874
4. George N. L., b. Aug 1877, m. Lillie Faye Stevens 11 Sep 1920
5. Frank W., b. Apr 1880, m. Alice M. Thomas 28 Mar 1917
6. Alice C., b. Oct 1882, m. Adolph Snyder 13 May 1906
7. Carl H. F., b. Oct 1886, m. Ida Meier 3 Dec 1911.
8. Dora M., b. Dec 1888, m. Karl F. Voelz 22 Sep 1915

John (Jr.) is listed as dry-goods merchant, general store in 1880 and 1900 cns. Chn; Martha and George were apparently clerking in the store in 1900. All the children's marriages are listed in Marriage Records of Bartholomew Co. Eddie Bowlen and Lillian Gottschalk may have been Emma's in-laws.

Miscellaneous Vorwalds in Bartholomew Co.IN before 1900

Sophia Vorwald m. Henry Zuroveste 15 Mar 1877 Bartholomew Co.IN
(This has to be a "button-hole" marriage. John Jr.'s wife was Sophia Zuroveste. A cousin or niece of Anna's and John's married a cousin, brother, nephew of John's wife.)

Lewis Vorwald m. Emma Welmer 29 Oct 1878
This Emma Welmer Vorwald may have re-married Henry Everoade 19 Nov 1891
(Two Emma Vorwalds in Marriage Records. Emma Bowlen is known to have been niece of Anna Vorwald.

Mary E. Piel next door to John Vorwald Jr. 1900 cens.
b. Feb 1830 OH,
her father born Holland, mother born Hanover, immigrated 1834
m. 10 yrs, widowed by 1900, her husband born Germany, had total of 7 chn.
chn: George J., b. Mar 1864
Louisa C., b. Oct. 1871
Henry J. Mar 1874, m. Martha L. 1898

This Mary Piel is probably related by marriage to the Indianapolis Piels and may also be related to the Vorwalds. It seems more than mere coincidence that a Piel is living next door to a Vorwald in Columbus!

The Woehrles

Based on the family oral tradition that Barbara Woehrle was from Batesville, IN--the only "Wehrle" family in Batesville in 1900 was...

Lawrence Wehrle, b. Nov 1855 OH, parents b. Germany, a farmer
m. Carrie — 1889 - she b. Aug 1861 OH, parents b. Germany
Chn: Gertie, Mamie, John, Joseph H. and Rosa.

Marion Co.IN Wehrles, 1900 cns.

Catherine Wehrle (widowed mother-in-law) b. Nov 1830 Germany living in home of son in law, George Pfan. She claimed to have had 4 children, 3 living.

George Pfan, b. Apr 1844 IN - parents b. Germany; hotel clerk
Mary — b. Apr.1845 IN - parents b. Germany
1. John b. Nov 1873 IN, owned Cigar Store
2. Katie, b. Feb 1876 IN

3. Emma, b. June 1879 IN
4. Lottie, b. Jan 1883, IN
5. Laura, b. Oct 1886, IN

Jacob Wherly b. Mar 1854 IN, widower, parents b. Germany - a baker son Jay b. May 1891

Jacob Wehrly, b. Mar 1872 -IN - day laborer (probably Jacob Jr.)
Ada, b. Sep 1875 IN
1. Orville, b. Sep 1895 IN
2. Ruth, b. Jun 1897 IN
3. Wilda, Apr 1899, IN

Henry Worley, b. Feb 1858 IN, parents b. Germany, blacksmith
Katie - b. Mar 1866
1. John E., b. Aug 1885
2. Walter A., b. Oct 1891
3. Willie J., b. Aug 1894
4. Dora E., b. May 1898

The only thing these people have in common with Barbara Woehrle is their German parentage. It would be a mistake to claim they are related to each other or to Barbara Woehrle.

It's possible that Catherine, the widowed mother-in-law in George Pfan's home is the mother of George's wife Mary, Jacob Wherly Sr. and Henry Worley. To have been Barbara Woehrle's mother, she would have had to marry before age 13 yrs.--which happened and could be in her case, since she was just 15 when she had Mary. More evidence is needed.

There were other Worleys in Indpls. but their birthplaces did not relate.

Dear Ones Marian and Walter--and Loved Ones :
Jr. Baby Frankie

Walter Jr.---seems to me--that you are always interested in THE FAMILY----you like some of the OLD things--Dear Theodor and I have about ~~mex~~ us.

DO YOU HAVE A SCRAP BOOK FOR YOUR BABY---if you have none see to it that you get one---and then KEEP IT UP:

I am enclosing an interesting letter---about our DEAR AUNT KATE HANSEN: She married our Dear Father 's brother---over in Denmark (she was Danish also) As I understand the story--OUR DEAR FATHER MATHEW HANSEN---came over from Denmark---at the age of 18 yrs. He was born---1836. He was , as I stated , about 18 yrs. old. HE CAME ON A SAILING VESSEL, in 1854. After he was in America---he sent for his Brother ~~Soren~~ SOREN HANSEN------I do not know --HOW COME--they came to Indiana.

Uncle Soren and Aunt Kate had 3 children---Walter Hansen (he passed on in 1950 ,I think) Louise--she learned to play the piano--most beautifully--when a girl---she married and moved east. and Hulda---can't think of her married name--(2nd marriege) she lives in Indpls. Hulda taught school--when she was young.

REMEMBER---get a scrap book: O Yes--I do want to state, THAT UNCLE SOREN and AUNT KATE---WERE PIONEERS IN THE SMALL DANISH LUTHERAN CHURCH---(just East of St.Paul's Lutheran Church) in Indpls: wonder if the church is still in existance ?

G E T A S C R A P B O O K---one that will take letters like this one:

Love to all,
Aunt Edith & Uncle Theodor

Dear Marian and Walter:

Here is another old letter for Scrap book

Aunt Kate

Hinsdale, Illinois.
October 22, 1937

SISTER CARRIE's BIRTHDAY:

Mrs. Newton Isaac Williams
722 North Belmont Ave.,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Sister Carrie:

WHAT's TODAY---CARRIES BIRTHDAY. As I looked at the calander this morning--October 22nd.--had only one meaning for me--and that was---that is was your BIRTHDAY.

Congratulations Dear Sister--I am enclosing a few hankies for you---they always come in handy---either to pass on to some Dear One---or use them yourself.

So you Dear Ones laid Dear Aunt Kate away on TUESDAY. She was a very remarkable woman---perhaps a bit too stern with her 3 children--when they were small-----but surely she had a chance to STAND BY THEM in their later years---and this she did most beautifully.

Dear Gladys drove me over to see Aunt Kate on the Monday morning before I returned to Chicago. I should have loved to have spent an entire day with Aunt Kate--she was so interesting. SHE never lost her interest in people---and as to her children and grandchildren--well--she was too cute for words--in her praise of them. She showed us many photographs--one of her home in DENMARK--which was lovely.

WAS'NT IT LOVELY --THE TREAT DEAR LUCY AND ARTH R GAVE US TWO WEEKS AGO, AT RAVINIA SPRINGS FARM. HAV'NT THEY DONE WONDERS WITH THAT LOVELY OLD HOUSE AND FARM ? TO BE ABLE TO CREATE THINGS-- AS LUCY DOES--IS A GIFT FEW OF US HAVE. AND THE NICE THING IS---THEY ARE HAPPY IN THEIR WORK--for rarely if ever--do they complain.

GLADYS AND WALTER with their children are indeed a happy little family. I stayed two nights with Gladys--and really--the childre are beautifully behaved----they are awfully cute to me.

Theodor joins me in kindly greetings to you and Newton--and YOUR LOVED ONES.

It was nice to meet Louise and her nice husband. I am sure they will be very happy---it seems to me they are nice suited to each other. Both rather quiet. I am certain they appreciated coming to Lucy and Arthur's farm they enjoyed gathering the walnuts, I know. Give them greetings from us, please.

Dear Carrie---Gladys gave me a pair of pillow slips, which you handed her----saying they belonged to me. Had you handed them to me---I would gladly have told you to keep them yourself. As it was---I did not want to take them home with me---so I gave them to Little Barbara Alice for her hope chest . IS'Nt THAT CUTE---just how old is she---9 years I believe.--She showed me a small box--and she calls it her HOPE CHEST. So when I saw it--I said--O, Lets put these pilow cases in your hope chest---and sometime if your little girl frien spends the night with you--you might get them out and use them. SHE WAS HIGHLY DELIGHTED WITH THEM. THANKS DEAR CARRIE. I tried to think who made those cases for me---can you recall. Perhaps LUCY can. I gave LOUISE, the sheet and pillow cases--the lace of which, her Dear MOTHE OUR SISTER EMMA--had made for me---then Lucy, Dear Girl--made the pillow cases and sheet and sewed the lace thereon. After all---I like to think, things are given to us for awhile---then its nice to pass something on/others to enjoy.

I was glad to see both--yourself and Newton--looking so well. Lucy always tells me of your nice clean house--spick and span. Surely that is the finest tr TRIBUTE--we can pay our own Dear Mother--(herself such a fine housekeeper and an exacting one) that we keep a clean home. I wish you could see the NICE OLD HOUSE--(about 47 yrs. old) that we live in. Its very comfortable, and I try to keep it orderly and clean---for in our work--we see all types of housekeeping. It is unfortunately true---that many of the young matrons--(who have maids) evi dently are not good at giving orders to these maids--or , they are indifferent about their housek eping. Of course this is not always the case---for on the other hand---we see much EXEMPLARY AND ORDERLY HOUSEKEEPING.

Dear Aunt Kate was an outstanding example of EVERY THING FINE IN HOUSEKEEPING---from a well ~~xxtable~~ set table--with clean linen--to a place for everything and everything in its place.

I like to keep house----and while I have to spend hours and hours away from my home----still when we step in through the door at Eve. --I for get the office---and am a real house frau once again.

Well, Dear Sister--its time I brought this letter to a close. My wish for you is----THAT AS EACH YEAR ROLLS BY--THAT A SWEET PEACE COME TO YOU, AND YOURS.

Lovingly,

(Mrs. Theodor I. Scheips)

Dear Marian,

Enclosed are the 1880 and 1900 Census and wills, naturalization papers and birth, death and marriage work for your mother-in-law's HANSEN, SUDBROCK, VORWALD and WOEHRLE families.

The SUDBROCK's posed no major problem--if there was a SUDBROCK there was no reason to question whether it was related to your husband. I did not find them on the 1860 IN Everyname Census Index. There was a Mary SUDBROCK b c 1803, but she appears not to have been in the direct line. The will for her husband Franz is included. I found no marriage for Heinrick and Anna in either Indianapolis/Marion Co. or Bartholomew Co.

The HANSENs were numerous, especially around Indianapolis--I tried to limit my Census work, but you will need some of it to keep the records straight! It's possible that the German HANSENs have nothing to do with your relatives, but Germany was loosely used term and pops up many times when some other northern European country is really the correct one. I did not even try to find this bunch on the 1860. Never did get a good handle on them, and again no marriage for Matthias and Barbara in Marion Co.

The VORWALDs were in the same category as the SUDBROCKs. Few and far between. Found only one on the 1880 and the 1900 Census and this one was in Bartholomew Co. Both this VORWALD (I suppose the brother of Anna) and Anna say they were born in IN prior to 1850, but I was not able to find the name in either the 1850 or the 1860 Census Indexes. Again, no marriage in either Bartholomew or Marion Co.'s.

Dear Marian,

Enclosed are the 1880 and 1900 Census and vital statistics papers and birth, death and marriage work for your mother-in-law's HANSEN, SUDBROCK, VORWALD and WOEHRLE families.

The SUDBROCK's posed no major problem--if there was a SUDBROCK there was no reason to question whether it was related to your husband. I did not find them on the 1880 IN Everyname Census Index. There was a Mary SUDBROCK b c 1803, but she appears not to have been in the direct line. The will for her husband Franz is included. I found no marriage for Heinrick and Anna in either Indianapolis/Marion Co. or Bartholomew Co.

The HANSENS were numerous, especially around Indianapolis--I tried to limit my Census work, but you will need some of it to keep the records straight! It's possible that the German HANSENS have nothing to do with your relatives, but Germany was loosely used term and pops up many times when some other northern European country is really the correct one. I did not even try to find this bunch on the 1860. Never did get a good handle on them, and again no marriage for Matthias and Barbara in Marion Co.

The VORWALDS were in the same category as the SUDBROCKs. Few and far between. Found only one on the 1880 and the 1900 Census and this one was in Bartholomew Co. Both this VORWALD I suppose the brother of Anna and Anna say they were born in IN prior to 1850, but I was not able to find the name in either the 1850 or the 1860 Census Indexes. Again, no marriage in either Bartholomew or Marion Co.'s.

The WOEHRLEs were really a mess! Taking into consideration phonetic spellings, it could have been spelt a dozen ways, with and without h's, y's, etc. and the r popping up everywhere. Some came from OH, VA, MD, KY, IN, Germany. etc. I found only one in Brookville, Franklin Co. and he was born 1855, OH. Apparently Barbara was born c1843 Germany.

You had asked for all 1880 Census listings for the names, but the 1880 Soundex Index is limited to only households with children 10 years and under, so I chose to check the 1900 Census, which is an everyname index. The 1910 IN Census is not indexed, so it would be time consuming to check the names out. I would suggest going over the 1870 Center Twp. (Indianapolis) Census for the names, because I have a feeling a lot more data would be on it, but the 1870 is not indexed, so it would take time.

At this point, I thought it best to stop. Remember I checked only the essentials, no county history indexes, genealogical records, cemetery lists, etc., which might also be helpful. If you can figure out what Lutheran Church now has the early records, you would probably find a wealth of data there as the Lutherans kept marvelous records, but of course, usually in German! Probably once you go through this stuff you will find a lot of tie-ins that I didn't pick up. I have kept copies of the pedigree and family group sheets, plus the Census for reference if you decide to go any father with this. Forgot, the library has Marion Co. marriage records to 1944--so it there are any you have been wondering about....

Am "snowed-in" today. Heard on the TV that Indy was in an even worse mess.

Dear Lucy and Arthur :

Please pardon delay in send ing you this copy---I surely have been busy.

Finally got our stove installed: its a Chambers--a dandy one--I say. I would have been satisfied --to have my old stove again--but Dear Hubby--wanted this Chambers--and gave it to me for Christmas---did not get it installed--until a few days ago---JUST TOO BUSY.

I will have to learn to cook again--so it seems---for its so different. The fireless cooking end of it--does not bother me--but the oven--and broiler does.

Dear Hubby has to go way into Ch Chicago tonight--on Southside--its snowing hard wish he could stay home. We will close the office n now--so I will say BYBY-- Much Love to you

OBITUARY OF EMILY SHIRLEY.

The mantle of death's darkness gathered in intense thickness over the bed of Emily Shirley in her humble cbttage at 2823 East Washington Street, and as they thicker grew finally overwhelming her and at eleven o'clock Thurdday morning her friends and loved ones quietly and solemnly said "she is gone."

The deceased was the daughter of Lawrence and Amanda Leak and was born at Lizton, Hendricks county Indiana May 6,1850, being 76 years 10 months and 11 days of age. She was the last surviving of eleven children.

On May 26,1868 she was united in marriage to Frances Marion Shirley. To this union six sons were born, one, Walter, died at the age of eleven years on November 25,1891. This companionship was broken by the death of the husband and father on January 13,1915.

After her marriage she united with the Montgomery Chapel M.E. Church at Lizton. In her lifetime she has been affiliated with the M.E. church at Pittsborro, Brownsburg and at the time of her death was affiliated with the King Ave. M.E.Church. While a member of the Methodist church she was very much given to church attendance and often visited other churches, most frequently, perhaps the Englewood Church, which was nearest her home. She took keen delight in preaching that was true to the Gospel, no matter where she heard it. She had some very strong religious convictions, and what she believed, she believed with all her heart and mind and soul.

Surviving her are the five sons, A.E.;O.N. of this city; B.E. of Anderson; C.F. of Kokomo and Luther also of this city. There are two grand daughters and five grand sons and one great grand son. Aside from these are many neices and nephews and friends who are numbered as a host.

It can be most truthfully said that the growing old of sister Shirley did not mean the loss of her always abiding cheerfulness. As long as the oldest of her children have known her, even to the very last hours of her life she was hopeful, contented and cheerful. Not many hours before her passing she said to the writer of this sketch, "Well I have been here about long enough, I have done my best to do they thing I thought right, I don't care how soon the end comes, I am ready, I think I have a happy home awaiting me." In this happy and spirit filled attitude of mind she fell asleep into the Lord and Master's care, passed from life unto Life.

"So long Thy power has blessed me, sure it still Will lead me on,
O'er moor and fen, o'er craig and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile."

"A Thrill Of Thrills."

A mourning dove is as busy as a bee,
She is building a nest right where I can see
Not more than thirty feet away
I hope she wont be frightened at anything today.

The Mrs is so busy arranging her small flat
And Mr Is quite busy and helping her at that,
He brings her sticks and she continues to arrange,
~~And~~ So close to my window that does to me seem strange.

Last year I wrote a ~~poem~~ bit of verse about the mourning dove
They ~~suddenly~~ they got the waves telling of my sincere love,
For them, and to think they would come this year,
To build a nest right in my garden here.

There home will be a beauty, in three or four weeks more,
It is a lattice pergola and covered with roses o'er,
Why they chose my bungalow home is a mystery,
For there are many mansions within a stones throw of me.

"The Mourning Doves And There Babies Two."

The whole family were out for air,
Sitting on the roof garden of the pergola there,
Mother, dad and the babies two,
Four in the family of the black billed cuckoo.

For I'm sure he chose this home last year,
Each evening he came and sat quite near,
When he had nothing else to do,
He would just sit there and coo and coo.

I learned to coo like the mourning dove,
So I thought I would fool the man I love,
I cooed and cooed , and would you know he heard,
He tip toed out to see the bird.

If I hadnt laughed he wouldnt have known,
He would have thought the coo-coo had flown,
Ah! He said I knew it was you
Dont be fooled dear reader that isnt true.

FALL FASHION SHOW AND MARDI GRAS.
At "Ravinia Springs" Hamilton Co.
(By Louise Barbara Sudbrock)

Called Mrs. Oak across the stream
Your golden gown is just a dream.
Replied Mrs. Elm I am quite proud
But don't you think it is a bit loud.

How do you like my majenta gown?
I searched the woods up hill and down,
Finally I hired Jack the artist to Come back each night to get this hue.

Miss Dog woods gown is a glorious red;
Do you remember last year what she said.
Miss Poison Ivy is a copy cat
And Miss Sumac's gown is red at that.

Mrs. Norway Maple looks fine in yellow,
And isn't Jackie Frost the fine old fellow?
In fact I think he is such a dear
Miss Sugar Maple is sweet on him, I hear.

Miss Evergreen to me looks sad;
I feel sorry she has never had
Anything else but a gown of green,
Still she looks beautiful tucked in between.

Have you heard the latest news,
There's to be a Mardi Gras to kill fall blues.
We are to waltz with gentle Mr. Breeze
And the grand march will be led by Mr. Freeze.

Mr. Strong Wind is the gayest each fall,
Without him there would be no confetti at all.
He makes us laugh until we shake all o'e'r
Until Mother Earth is one colorful floor.

The Songs

1. Welcome all you wanderers
Who come from lands afar
Listen hark and ponder well
We hope this tale will neither jar
Nor offend your eager ears

This tale which we will now relate
Comes down through mists of time
A noble house, a great estate
A family famed, a noble line
Yes lions among men

Our great Queen Bess sat on the throne
And England ruled the seas
Three brothers from their Sussex home
Set forth to brave and valiant deeds
To roam the wide world o'er.

Anthony's song

Men talk of Marco Polo
Columbus, Cook and Drake
How many sing of me though?
..many sing of me though?
Yet were I not so great?
Yet were I not so great?

My name is Anthony Shirley,
The middle boy of three.
And I can say quite fairly
..I can say quite fairly
The greatest one was me
The greatest one was me

I was born in Wiston
In 1565
And if you'll kindly listen
..If you'll kindly listen
I'll tell you of my life
I'll tell you of my life

Thomas' song

I thought that I would go to Spain
And be a buccaneer
I'd fight against the Spanish foe
And make my fortune clear
So I set sail with two bold ships
We made our way to Spain
We sacked and plundered boats and towns
And vowed to go again

But tragedy, oh tragedy
We were captured by the Turks
And sent in chains to Istanbul
To face their grins and smirks

For two long years we rotted there
Alone and much in need,
Till good King James came to our aid
And we were quickly freed

I wandered long through Europe
But Wiston called to me
My life was all in ruins
Laid bare for all to see

I sold my house to pay the debts
I tried to start again
But failure seemed to dog my path
I died a broken man.

Robert and Anthony's song

In 1598 we grew most tired of all this warring
And so resolved without ado, to set our sights on something new
A venture bold and daring

Of enemies we had full score, o'er all the world we'd find 'em
So we set off from England's shore, to make good friends with the Persian Shah
In confidence to bind him

The journey was most perilous, hardship soon beset us
Robbed and plundered by our foes, they all seemed out to get us
Turks and Arabs took their toll, our riches soon were taken,
At last we reached the Persian court, much stirred, but never shaken

We travelled far, we travelled wide, we crossed all Europe over,
And every court on every side had heard the name of Shurley cried
Those great and glorious brothers

Adventures far too numerous befell us in our travels
But plots and evil rumours conspired to wound and bruise us
And leave us sadly baffled.

THE SHIRLEYS OF WISTON

Here, in Isfield Church, you will find the tomb of John Shirley. According to public records, the Shirleys of Isfield were a peacable, unremarkable family who were very well connected at court. One of the Isfield Shirleys, Sir John, married Jane Shirley of Wiston, (sister of the three Shirley brothers of whom I will tell shortly), thereby connecting them with a more famous branch of the Shirley family, whose exploits have been compared to those of Marco Polo.

Wiston House, near Steyning, had been the home of the Shirley (or Shurley, or Sherley) family since Sir Hugh Shirley married Beatrix de Braose. His descendants were prolific and settled in many parts of Sussex. Thomas Shirley, knighted by Queen Elizabeth 1 at Rye in 1573 rebuilt the house for his wife Anne, their three sons, Thomas, Anthony and Robert, and six daughters, Mary, Isabel, Elizabeth, Jane (see above), Anne, and Cecilia.

In those days, knights were required to work in the service of the Queen and Sir Thomas spent a good deal of his time with the armies in the Low Countries (now Holland). He rose to be Treasurer of War, but when the armies failed to win their battles, Sir Thomas lost favour at court and had to forfeit his own lands to pay the soldiers. All he retained was the house and land at Wiston.

Of the three sons, Anthony probably achieved most in his life. He married Frances Vernon, a cousin of the Earl of Essex, (who was a favourite of the Queen for a time). It is said that this was an unhappy marriage and it led him to his roving life! Anthony followed Essex into battle in both France and Ireland and was knighted in both countries. This angered Queen Elizabeth who would not "have my sheep marked with a strange brand". In 1595 he sailed with his father against Portugese settlements on the African coast. This venture failed but it seems they changed direction, sailed half way across the world and captured Jamaica in 1596! A year later Anthony returned, no better off for these adventures. More fighting in Europe followed but in 1598 he decided, he is reported to have said, "to do some extraordinary thing before I return back again." He set sail from Venice in an argosie, bound for Scanderoon, with the intention of persuading the King of Persia, the Shah Abbas, to join the Christian powers against their common enemy, the Turks. With him on this expedition went his younger brother, Robert. On the journey from Babylon to Persia they were attacked by Arabs and all the jewels they had brought for the Shah were stolen. Despite this setback the two Shirley brothers were royally received by the Shah and in return for advice about armaments the Shah made Anthony a Mizra, or Prince. Shah Abbas obviously thought very highly of the two brothers and made Anthony his ambassador to the courts of Europe. Anthony then travelled back to and through Europe as the Shah's representative. First stop was Russia where Czar Boris gave him a cool reception (1599). Then on to Germany where he was well received by Emperor Rodolph (1600). From there to Rome where, for unknown reasons, he left in disgrace and returned to Venice. At home, his patron and kinsman, the Earl of Essex, had been executed and it is likely that those associated with him were out of favour too. However, when James 1 came to the throne it appears he gave Anthony many proofs of his favour. His journeys and exploits throughout Europe are too numerous to recall here. Towards the end of his life Anthony settled in Spain, the 'old enemy'. Despite having a sizeable pension from various sources, it seems that he was often in dire straits and on the verge of starvation. He died in 1630, in Spain.

Robert, Anthony's younger brother, fought in the Low Countries and accompanied his brother to Persia. He stayed at the Persian court when Antrhony left, and married Teresia, daughter of a Circassian chief. They had two children. In 1608 the Shah sent him to King James of England with a special letter. Robert went via the courts of several countries and was warmly received and honoured by them. When he visited the court at Rome, he wore full length Persian costume, with a crucifix on the turban. It is said he was "showered with empty honours". In 1611 Robert and Teresia returned home to Wiston where matters were in a sorry state. The brothers' father, Sir Thomas, had long been disfavoured at court and had had to dispose of all of his properties and lands except Wiston. Sir Thomas died the year after Robert returned, 1612. Robert and Teresia set out for Persia again in 1613. They took nearly nine months but stayed in Persia until 1615. Then to Madrid, Spain for seven years. Fron there to Rome for two years and thence back to the English court, where it is said, he suffered from intrigues and jealousy. At last he reurned to Persia where he died aged about fifty at a place called Kazveen and he was buried beneath the threshold of his own house in 1628. His wife Teresia became a nun in Rome.

Thomas, eldest of the three Shirleys, went to the Low countries like his brothers and then to Ireland where he was knighted. He married the daughter of Sir Thomas Vavasour, which displeased the Queen, and he was gaoled for fourteen weeks. He went back to the Low Countries but by this time his father had lost favour and fortune so Thomas bought two ships and became a buccaneer, attacking Spanish ships. In this way he hoped to restore the family fortunes. At first he was successful, but on his next trip he was captured by Turks (1602) and imprisoned on the island of Zoa. From there he was taken to Constantinople (now Istanbul). After two years in prison, King James secured his release. Thomas returned home through Europe and arrived back at Wiston almost penniless (1606). He tried to set up trade companies and deal with the Orient but he failed and was accused of malicious practices and "intefering with the levant trade". For this he was imprisoned in the Tower of London. On his release his liabilities and debts were so great that he was forced to sell Wiston, the family home. He retired to the Isle of Wight where he died in obscurity.

These three Shirleys or Shurleys or Sherleys saw more of the world than many of us ever will, with all our modern transport. Great adventurers they undoubtedly were; yet despite their connections in high places all over Europe, their lives ended in comparative obscurity and who, today, has heard of their marvellous exploits.
